In this fast-paced webinar, an employment defense attorney, Tony Oncidi (of Proskauer Rose LLP), and a plaintiffs' employment lawyer, Andrew H. Friedman (of Helmer Friedman LLP), will analyze the Biden Administration's blitzkrieg of changes and reversals from the Trump Administration. The panelists will discuss the employment-related actions that the Biden administration has taken to date (including new Executive Orders and key administrative agency firings and appointments), and the new employment laws and regulations that they believe the administration will take in the near future.
