

Zoom Breakfast Briefings 2020

Grab your coffee and come join us for these Free 1hr Zoom Webinars on current Social Justice Workplace issues

SESSION 1 - October 27th 9AM

Addressing Employee Activism in Turbulent Times

This session will cover employer strategies in responding to employees' conduct such as political activities, social media posts, and membership in objectionable organizations.

SESSION 2 - November 10th 9AM

Implicit Bias 1.0: Fundamentals and Workplace Impact

This session is designed to build a foundational understanding of implicit (unconscious) and explicit bias and its implications for organizations and workforce development.

SESSION 3 - December 8th 9AM

What's a 'micro-aggression' ??!##: Exploration, Examples, Effects

This session will cover micro-aggressions, share specific examples and their potential impact on workforce relations and talent development.

Speakers

Cameron W. Fox – Session 1

Cameron W. Fox is a partner at Paul Hastings and Chair of its Los Angeles Employment Law department.

Karen Gunn – Session 2 & 3

Dr. Gunn has been a small-business owner for over 40 years as Principal of Gunn Consulting Group, an organizational and management development firm.

REGISTER HERE

www.ertsc.org